The American Medical Association is holding its forty-fifth annual convention at San Francisco this week.

The $5,000 libel suit of William Gaines against the Henderson Citizen was decided in favor of defendant.

State Senator Wortham has withdrawn from the contest for the Democratic Congressional nomination in the Fourth District.

A Cincinnati man has sued Lt. Gov. Sharpe and ex-Treasury Sharp for $100,000 lost at Monte Carlo by alleged misrepresentations.

The administrator of Logan Cund's estate has advertised to sell the Murray Ledger for the 23 June to the highest bidder on 12 month's time.

The Supreme court has affirmed the decision of the Kentucky court of Appeals refusing to permit Mrs. Belva Lockwood to practice law in that state.

The President has sent to the Senate the nomination of Charles Neilson, of Maryland, to be Second Assistant Post master General. Vice of Louis, resigned.

The firm of Steels Walker, one of the largest wholesale grocery houses in New York, has been sold to S. Joseph, Mo. Their liabilities are estimated at $700,000.

Locality lawyers and doctors will have to pay license to practice in that city, however, or be arrested and fined. Fifty warrants have already been issued for delinquents.

Returns from the Oregon election show that the Republicans carried the State. Lord is elected Governor by 15,000 plurality. The Republicans will control both branches of the Legislature.

At the Democratic convention held at Frankfort Tuesday, June 1, James B. McCreary was nominated for reelection as Senator from the Eighth District without opposition. This will make his sixth term.

Two hundred negroes have left Birmingham, Ala., to take the place of the striking Pennsylvania miners. It is the intention of the Pennsylvania operators to fill every strike's place and proceed with work.

The Ohio Republicans met in State convention at Columbus Tuesday. There are serious differences in the Committee on Resolutions over the silver question, and all night sessions are being held to reach an agreement.

At Owensboro this week, Judge Har of the United States Circuit court, rendered a decision in the case of the Southern Church law conflict with interstate commerce, and was therefore unconstitutional. It will likely be appealed.

The White Sulphur springs, W. Va., long the most fashionable summer resort in the South, was sold last week to J. T. Burke, of Alexandria, Va., for $25,000. The place and improvements have cost over three million dollars and the present purchase is considered a bargain.

The outcome of the litigation in the big railroads' case between the Chicago, St. Louis, and San Francisco and the Louisville and Nashville and the Illinois Central railroads is not yet known. Judge Edwards of Louisville has advised me that he expects the trial of the Kentucky case to begin in July, but it will probably be postponed before a decision in the case is rendered.

The most important event of the Glasgow 17th century case that is this year for review. He claims that the pests visited this country in '55, '72, '73, '79, and '80, and therefore doesn't look for them again until 1905.

The fact is, however, that there should be other "17th century" cases as the ones we have in large numbers in '55, '72, '73, and '79, and they are with us again.

WEDDINGS.

There have been two additional to the last number since the Mills are meeting, the result of revivals that are about $4,000 and the liabilities something near $40,000.

Whet harvest will begin in Tennessee the latter part of next week.

Several crops as far north as Springfield are ripening and a fair yield is promised.

Fox, Howell, Ky., handle the celebrated Osborne twins who will sell at very close figure. Get their prices and you will not fail to get your twin of them.

A young man named Story, who had been a successful effect, consisting of young horses and mules, and implements, has sold his team and stripped many of their bodies. Those in a position to know say that about two thirds of the usual crop will be played between the two clubs.

Light Tobacco Season.

An excellent tobacco season was predicted in South Kentucky Wednesday morning, a copious rain having fallen Tuesday evening. The crop was not yet started, but estimated over a large portion of the county and the farmers took advantage of the opportunity to set a large number of plants. In North Christian the rain the fall was not so heavy, but the farmers availed themselves of the rain and stripped many of their bodies. Those in a position to know say that about two thirds of the usual crop will already be set.

Paducah in Darkness.

The darkness in Paducah will reign the greatest length in this city. There will be six votes for and six against a motion to continue the oil contract until the electric light plant was ready for use, and the two being two votes apart, the move was defeated.

I think the people want the light, but the Farmers' association, I consider, has a strong influence and stripped many of their bodies. Those in a position to know say that about two thirds of the usual crop will already be set.

Paducah in Darkness.

The darkness in Paducah will reign the greatest length in this city. There will be six votes for and six against a motion to continue the oil contract until the electric light plant was ready for use, and the two being two votes apart, the move was defeated.
